

Startling Statistics

Contributed by Critter Jungle Administrator
Monday, 08 January 2007

"To provide homes for all of the unwanted or homeless animals, every family of four in the United States would need to have approximately 8 dogs and 20 cats," says Kim Langholz, a community practice veterinarian at Iowa State University.