

What dogs see!

Contributed by Critter Jungle Administrator
Saturday, 15 March 2008
Last Updated Sunday, 16 March 2008

THE DOG'S WORLD OF COLOR

By Dana K. Vaughan, Ph.D., Dept. of Biology, University of Wisconsin, Oshkosh

Vision is just one of several senses that dogs use to scan their world for important information. Any visual scene has multiple aspects to which dogs' brains are sensitive: brightness, shape, contrast, and motion are a few of these. But what about color?

Many authorities have stated that "dogs are colorblind....."